

Capella University Boost Scholarship

We know life gets busy and sometimes big goals get paused. But your dreams didn't go anywhere, and neither did we.

Students who were admitted with a March 2026 start date but have yet to start or select a new start date may qualify for $500 off the first quarter tuition in GuidedPath or 20% off the first 12-week billing session tuition in FlexPath when enrolled in an eligible program with a start date falling between now and July 31, 2026. Eligibility rules and exclusions apply. Connect with us for details.

Eligibility requirements

Admissions

Must meet Capella University admission requirements.

Student criteria

- Must be a new student or former student reapplying to Capella University
- Must have been admitted with a March 2026 start date without having started or having selected a new start date
- Must enroll in an eligible program* available in the GuidedPath or FlexPath learning formats with a start date falling between now and July 31, 2026

*Certificate applicants are not eligible. Refer to scholarship details below for further information regarding student eligibility criteria.

Academic standards

Must adhere to all applicable Capella University policies, including but not limited to academic standing (3.01.04 Academic Standing) and financial aid satisfactory academic progress (3.01.05 FASAP).

How to apply for this scholarship

- Eligible students must apply for the Boost Scholarship before 11:59 p.m. Central Time the day courses begin.
- Log in to apply for the GuidedPath Boost Scholarship
- Log in to apply for the FlexPath Boost Scholarship

Boost Scholarship details

- The Boost Scholarship can be applied only to an eligible doctoral, master's or bachelor's program available in the GuidedPath or FlexPath learning format. The $500 or 20% off will be applied to your Capella account during the third week of the first quarter or billing session.
- Recipients who do not remain enrolled through the first two weeks of the quarter/billing session will forfeit the award.
- Under no circumstances will recipients be eligible for cash payment or other compensation for the value of unused disbursements.
- Recipients of the Boost Scholarship are not eligible for other Capella grants or scholarships, or discounts in excess of 15%, with the exception of a Capella Progress Reward scholarship or Capella Tuition Cap, if applicable. Students receiving Tuition Assistance Aligned Pricing through a partnership between Capella and the students' employer are not eligible for this award.
- The scholarship may decrease the amount of funding that can be offered from other sources, such as federal financial aid.
- The scholarship is intended to address the cost of attendance, including but not limited to tuition. Books, course materials, supplies, equipment and other fees apply. Travel expenses for residencies, practicum, etc., are not covered by the scholarship.
- To be considered a former student reapplying to the university, the student must not be currently enrolled in the university when reapplying, and must meet one of the following four criteria:
 - Graduate of a Capella certificate or a bachelor's, master's or doctoral degree program in the GuidedPath or FlexPath learning format.
 - Inactive from the university for at least four consecutive quarters.
 - Program of prior admittance to the university has been restaged or retired.
 - Applying to a program at a different degree level than program of prior admittance.

Faculty and staff of Capella University, Strategic Education, Inc., and Strategic Education, Inc. subsidiaries and affiliates, as well as their spouses, domestic partners and dependent children, are not eligible for the scholarship.

The terms and conditions of all scholarships and each subsequent renewal are subject to change and will be governed by university scholarship policies. Capella University reserves the right to cancel or modify any scholarship funded by the university at any time.