Capella University was founded with a commitment to extend access to high-quality higher education and is dedicated to the success of its learners. As a part of the admission process, the university seeks to assess an applicant's potential to succeed in its online environment. Applicants must meet the program-specific admission requirements outlined in the accompanying table to be offered admission to Capella University. All applicants are also expected to read, speak, and write fluently in English. Although particular emphasis is placed on the applicant's academic history, non-academic factors may also be considered when evaluating an application for admission. Therefore, additional information and/or application materials may be requested and considered on an individual basis. Exceptions to admission requirements may be granted by the school dean or designee. There are no exceptions to admission requirements for the Doctor of Psychology program.

Learners are responsible for fulfilling the program requirements specified in the catalog in effect at the time they are enrolled.

Learners seeking to take an individual course at Capella may be admitted to the university as non-degree-seeking learners. Some courses may not be available to non-degree-seeking learners. Non-degree-seeking learners registered for a Capella course are subject to all applicable university rules and policies.

International and English as a Second Language Applicants

International applicants must have attended an internationally recognized institution. All applicants are expected to understand, read, speak, and write fluently in English.

Equal Opportunity and Nondiscrimination

Capella University prohibits discriminatory practices and pledges to seek out and minimize all forms of discrimination in all of its activities and programs. The university supports federal and state legislation prohibiting discrimination against any person based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, or status with regard to public assistance. Further, it is the university's policy to assure equal opportunity to all persons with disabilities, disabled veterans, and veterans of the Vietnam era. The university complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and regulations, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008.

RATIONALE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that Capella University upholds quality standards for admission while extending access to high-quality higher education.

DEFINITIONS

Program Start Date

Program start date reflects the official start date of a learner's academic program and is assigned when a learner first registers for at least one course that is part of a degree or certificate program if he or she remains registered through course census date (12th calendar day of a course).

PROCEDURES

I. Application Materials for All Applicants

- A. Applicants must complete the admission application and submit all required program-specific documentation as detailed in the Admission Components table.
- B. Any application materials submitted become the property of Capella University. These materials will not be returned or forwarded to another institution.
- C. Truth in Information
If unexplained discrepancies appear between statements or documents provided to Capella University as a part of admission materials and information otherwise obtained, applicants may be rejected for admission, admission may be revoked, or learners may be dismissed.

II. All International and Second-Language Applicants

- A. Transcript Evaluation
 1. Applicants must have any international college or university transcripts evaluated and reviewed for eligibility for admission.
 2. Applicants may elect to have their transcripts evaluated by an approved organization and sent to Capella or may choose to have Capella arrange a third-party evaluation for an additional, nonrefundable fee. Capella-facilitated evaluations are for the sole purpose of Capella admission review and may not be accepted by other academic institutions.
 3. Transcript evaluation is not a guarantee of admission.
- B. English Proficiency
 1. Applicants whose language of instruction is not English are required to take one of the following English proficiency tests and achieve the listed minimum score.
 - a. Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum acceptable score of 550 for the paper-based test or 79 for those completing the Internet-based examination.
 - b. Michigan English Language Assessment Battery (MELAB) with a minimum acceptable score of 77.
 - c. International English Language Testing System (IELTS) with a minimum acceptable score of 6.5.
 - d. Pearson Test of English (PTE) with a minimum acceptable score of 59.
 2. Applicants who have earned a postsecondary degree from a U.S.-accredited university are not required to take an English proficiency test.

C. Student Visas

Capella is an online university and does not issue I-20 forms (U.S. Department of Homeland Security Certificates of Eligibility for student visas). Capella cannot fulfill requests for student visas. Obtaining any necessary immigration authorizations for residencies, site-based learning, and any other non-online university events and activities is the sole responsibility of the learner.

III. Evaluation Process for All Applicants

The submitted information, in addition to any previous academic work at Capella, is reviewed by Admissions in accordance with admission requirements for the requested program. Clinical programs may also require faculty interviews of applicants. The review of all application material results in one of the following recommendations:

- A. Applicant meets all admission requirements and is offered admission.
- B. Applicants who do not fully satisfy admission requirements may be considered as exceptions and may be asked to submit a resume, extended goal statement, and/or other relevant documents in addition to initial application materials. These applications are reviewed by the school for an admission decision. The decision is referred to Admissions for processing.
- C. Conditional Admission may be available to applicants for select programs.
 - 1. Under conditional admission status, applicants who have not yet submitted all official transcripts and/or other required documentation may be granted permission to matriculate into their program while continuing the application process.
 - 2. Learners granted conditional admission have until the end of the first full quarter following their program start date to submit all official transcripts and/or required documentation. Upon acceptance of their admission offer, learners under conditional admission status will be permitted to register for second quarter courses at the next quarter start.
 - 3. Upon submission of all required materials, the application will be reviewed according to the evaluation process.
 - 4. Learners under conditional admission status are ineligible to have financial aid disbursed until they have been fully admitted. Learners are encouraged to contact a financial aid counselor for more information.
 - 5. Learners who fail to complete the application, submit all official transcripts and/or other required documentation, or meet admission requirements will be administratively withdrawn from the university.
- D. The applicant does not meet admission requirements. Admission is denied.
 - 1. Conditionally admitted learners who are denied full admission are allowed to complete any coursework in progress at the time of the denial and will remain registered in their current course(s) unless they initiate a course drop or withdrawal pursuant to university policy 2.02.02 Course Registration.
 - 2. Learners are financially responsible for any tuition and fees related to their course(s) in accordance with university policy 4.03.02 Tuition and Fee Refunds.

IV. Site-Based Learning (Field Experiences/Practice Immersions, Internships, or Practica)

To ensure availability, appropriate supervision, and an equivalent experience in site-based learning, all individuals admitted to the School of Education, School of Nursing and Health Sciences, School of Public Service Leadership, School of Counseling and Human Services, and Harold Abel School of Psychology programs with any required, elective, or optional site-based learning must be eligible to work within the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands at the time of the experience, and must agree that this experience will be completed within the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Note: Capella University is not able to offer visas or other types of work permits; therefore, obtaining any necessary authorization is the sole responsibility of the learner. All individuals admitted to specializations that include site-based learning (field experiences/practice immersions, internships, or practica) must be eligible to work within the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands at the time of the experience and must agree that this experience will be completed within the United States, Canada, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands.

V. Returning Learners

- A. Learners who have been separated from the university through discontinuation or administrative withdrawal may be required to reapply for admission.
- B. Reapplication for admission is subject to review by the school dean or designee. The decision of the school dean or designee is final and not subject to appeal.
- C. Learners who do not register for courses for four consecutive quarters will be administratively withdrawn from the university and must reapply for admission. Admitted learners must meet the program-specific admission requirements effective in the catalog current at the time of admission.
- D. Alumni applicants seeking admission to a degree program at the same level as a conferred Capella degree will be ineligible for admission when that program is identical, equivalent, or has substantive course overlap to the individual's previously-earned degree, as defined by the Registrar's Office.
- E. Doctoral alumni are ineligible for admission to a second Capella doctoral degree.

VI. Additional Admission Requirements for GuidedPath Programs

The following degree programs and specializations have additional admission requirements related to accreditation, licensing, or other determining factors:

A. Non-Degree Admission

Non-degree-seeking learners planning to take a graduate-level counseling course are required to submit a degree-conferred transcript for a bachelor's degree as well as transcripts from all previous institutions at which graduate work was completed (minimum degree-conferred GPA of 2.7 for undergraduate work and 3.0 cumulative GPA for graduate work). A rationale statement may also be required.

B. All Undergraduate Degree Programs

1. Applicants to all undergraduate degree and certificate programs must be at least 24 years old.
 - a. This age requirement may be waived for military applicants, veterans, and applicants with 24 or more applied transfer quarter credits of prior college/university coursework.

- b. Applied transfer college coursework and/or credentials that map to preapproved prior learning assessment opportunities may be considered toward the 24-credit minimum equivalency total.
 - 2. Applicants who do not have any credits eligible for college/university transfer must successfully complete a university-approved examination.
