

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama. Alabama accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited programs with a minimum of Candidacy status and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Alaska	Baccalaureate Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alaska accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
American Samoa	N/A	American Samoa does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arizona	Baccalaureate Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Arizona accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Arkansas	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Arkansas accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
California	N/A	California does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Colorado	N/A	Colorado does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Connecticut	N/A	Connecticut does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Delaware	Licensed baccalaureate Social Worker or Licensed Bachelors social worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure in Delaware. Delaware accepts a degree in social work from a university accredited by an institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (US DoE) and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) which is recognized by the US DoE. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
District of Columbia	Licensed Social Work Associate (LSWA)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia accepts a bachelor's degree in social work from a university accredited by an institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (US DoE) and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) which is recognized by the US DoE. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Florida	N/A	Florida does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Georgia	N/A	Georgia does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Guam	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Guam. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Guam accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Hawaii	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Hawaii. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Hawaii accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Idaho	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure in Idaho. Idaho accepts a bachelor's degree in social work from a university accredited by an institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (US DoE) and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) which is recognized by the US DoE. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Illinois	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Illinois accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and 3 years of post-graduate supervised professional experience. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must ensure they complete 3 years of post-graduate supervised professional experience outside of Capella. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	Licensed Bachelor Degree Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Indiana accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Iowa	Bachelor Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	Temporary Candidacy Baccalaureate Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Kansas accepts completion of a baccalaureate degree in social work that is in Candidacy status with the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. A temporary candidacy baccalaureate social work license is nonrenewable but may be extended upon a showing that the social work program remains in candidacy status with the accrediting body recognized by the board. Capella's program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Kentucky	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kentucky accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Louisiana	Registered Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Louisiana. Louisiana accepts a bachelor's degree from an accredited social work program, including programs in Candidacy and Pre-Candidacy status from the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Maine	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work program will meet state requirements for professional licensure in Maine. Maine accepts a bachelor's degree in social work from a university accredited by an institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (US DoE) and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) which is recognized by the US DoE. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Maryland	Bachelor Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Maryland. Maryland accepts completion of a bachelor's degree in social work from a program that is accredited or is a candidate for accreditation by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Massachusetts	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Massachusetts accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Michigan	Bachelor's Social Worker (BSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Michigan accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Minnesota	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Minnesota accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Mississippi	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Mississippi accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Missouri	Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Missouri accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Montana	Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker Candidate	Capella's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana. Montana accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited programs with a minimum of Candidacy status and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nebraska	Certified Social Worker (CSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nebraska accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Nevada	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nevada accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Hampshire	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Hampshire. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Hampshire accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Jersey	Certified Social Worker (CSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Jersey accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Mexico	Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Mexico. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Mexico accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program, a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination, a passing score on the New Mexico Jurisprudence examination, and training in New Mexico cultures. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella learners must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination and the New Mexico Jurisprudence examination. Capella learners will need to complete training in New Mexico cultures outside of Capella. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New York	N/A	New York does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
North Carolina	Certified Social Worker (CSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Carolina accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
North Dakota	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Dakota accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Northern Mariana Islands	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the Northern Mariana Islands. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. The Northern Mariana Islands accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Ohio	Licensed Social Worker (LSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Ohio accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Oklahoma	Licensed social work associate (LSWA)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Oklahoma accepts a degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited social work program, including programs in Candidacy status, and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Oregon	Registered Baccalaureate Social Worker (RBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon. Oregon accepts a bachelor's degree in social work from a college or university accredited by an accrediting organization recognized by the board, including programs in Candidacy status from the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Pennsylvania	Licensed Bachelor Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Pennsylvania. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Pennsylvania accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Puerto Rico	Social Work Professional	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Puerto Rico. Puerto Rico accepts a bachelor's degree from a university accredited by an institution recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (US DoE) with at least 30 credits in social work and 3 or more years of post-graduate experience as a social worker in a recognized social work agency. Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) which is recognized by the US DoE. Capella graduates will need to ensure they obtain 3 or more years of post-graduate experience as a social worker in a recognized social work agency outside of Capella. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Rhode Island	N/A	Rhode Island does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
South Carolina	Baccalaureate Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Carolina. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Carolina accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Dakota	Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Dakota accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Tennessee	Baccalaureate social worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Tennessee accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Texas	Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Texas accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
US Virgin Islands	Licensed Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the US Virgin Islands. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. The US Virgin Islands accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Utah	Social Service Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Utah accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Vermont	N/A	Vermont does not offer a social work license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Virginia	Licensed Baccalaureate Social Worker (LBSW)	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Washington	N/A	Washington does not offer a state license at the bachelor's level. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor state rules and regulations for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
West Virginia	Level A - Licensed Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. West Virginia accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Wisconsin	Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Wisconsin accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination and the Wisconsin Statutes and Rules Examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Bachelor of Social Work

Disclaimer: The disclosure below is Capella University's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wyoming	Certified Social Worker	Capella University's Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Wyoming accepts a baccalaureate degree in social work from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a passing score on the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) examination. Capella University is in the process of pursuing CSWE accreditation for its BSW program. The BSW program is currently in Candidacy status with CSWE. Learners who enter programs that have attained Candidacy status in the academic year in which they begin their program of study will be retroactively recognized as having graduated from a CSWE accredited program once the program attains full accreditation. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the ASWB examination. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or state-specific) and licensure applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.