

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Certified Registered Nurse Practitioner (CRNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama. Alabama accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Alaska	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska. Alaska accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Students completing clinical experiences in Alaska must register with the state prior to commencing those experiences, provide evidence they are enrolled in an accredited program that meets Board requirements, and have the agreement between the program and licensed clinical site approved by the Alaska Board of Nursing. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Arizona	Registered Nurse Practitioner (RNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona. Arizona accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arkansas	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas. Arkansas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master’s degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Colorado	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Colorado. Colorado accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a completion of a graduate degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella’s program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Connecticut	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Connecticut. Connecticut accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a graduate degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Delaware. Delaware accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Florida	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Florida. Florida accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a 45-quarter unit master’s degree in advanced nursing practice that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, meets the quarter unit requirement, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Georgia	Certified Nurse Practitioner (NP)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia. Georgia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level degree in an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Hawaii	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Hawaii. Hawaii accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Idaho	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Idaho. Idaho accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Illinois	Advanced Practice Nurse (APN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Illinois accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a graduate degree in clinical advanced practice registered nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana. Indiana accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a graduate degree in nursing which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella’s program contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Iowa	Advanced Registered Nurse Practitioner (ARNP)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Iowa accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella’s program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Kansas	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Kansas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a formal, post-basic nursing education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kentucky	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Kentucky accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body, a passing score on the state-specific examination, and completion of an advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Capella graduates must ensure they obtain a passing score on the Kentucky Jurisprudence Examination. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Maine	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maine. Maine accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate nurse practitioner program in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Massachusetts	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Massachusetts accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Michigan	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan. Michigan accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's or doctoral degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Minnesota	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota. Minnesota accepts a certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree from a Minnesota approved advanced practice registered nursing education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited, Minnesota approved, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Mississippi	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse, Certified Nurse Practitioner (APRN-CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi. Mississippi accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree that prepares nurses for an advanced practice nursing specialty role from a program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Missouri	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri. Missouri accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Montana	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana. Montana accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Nebraska	Nurse Practitioner (APRN-NP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska. Nebraska accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Nevada accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
New Hampshire	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Hampshire. New Hampshire accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
New Jersey	Advanced Practice Nurses (APN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey. New Jersey accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's program with a focus on an advanced practice nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Mexico	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Mexico. New Mexico accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a nurse practitioner program at the master's level or higher. Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
North Carolina	Nurse Practitioner (NP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina. North Carolina accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level nurse practitioner education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
North Dakota	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota. North Dakota accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Ohio	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio. Ohio accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree with a major in a nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Oklahoma	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Oklahoma accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Oregon	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon. Oregon accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-master's certificate in an advanced practice registered nursing role that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Rhode Island	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island. Rhode Island accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate advanced practice registered nurse program. Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
South Carolina	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Carolina. South Carolina accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree. Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
South Dakota	Certified Nurse Practitioner (CNP)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota. South Dakota accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Tennessee	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee. Tennessee accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree in a nursing specialty. Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Texas	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Texas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Utah	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Utah accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree in advanced practice registered nurse nursing education that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains specific content requirements. Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Vermont	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Vermont. Vermont accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is approved by a state or a national accrediting agency which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements. Capella's program is approved by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and by the Minnesota Board of Nursing, the program contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Virginia	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Virginia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in advanced practice registered nurse specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Washington	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University's MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Washington. Washington accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in advanced nursing education that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner

Disclaimer: Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the following states. Capella is not currently accepting applications from residents in the following states. Capella learners who relocate to the following states may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state.

AS, CA, DC, GU, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR, VI

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credentials, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
West Virginia	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia. West Virginia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in an advanced practice registered nurse specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Wisconsin	Advance Practice Nurse Prescriber	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin. Wisconsin accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body, completion of a master’s degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework, and a passing score on the Wisconsin Statutes and Rules Online Exam. Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework requirements, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Capella graduates must obtain a passing score on the Wisconsin Statutes and Rules Online Exam. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Wyoming	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN)	Capella University’s MS in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming. Wyoming accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a state board approved graduate program in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE). Capella’s program is CCNE accredited, approved by the Minnesota Board of Nursing, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners. Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.