Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Certified Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Practitioner	requirements for professional licensure in Alabama.
		Alabama accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree or higher in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses
		Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Alaska	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Alaska.
		Alaska accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Students completing clinical experiences in Alaska must register with the state prior to commencing those experiences, provide evidence they are enrolled in an accredited program that meets Board requirements, and have the agreement between the program and licensed clinical site approved by the Alaska Board of Nursing.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatons are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatons are advised to a distinct and included the connection of the connection with mandatons are advised to a distinct and the connection of the connection with mandatons are advised to a distinct and the connection of the connec
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
American Samoa	Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in American Samoa.
		American Samoa accepts completion of educational requirements consistent with licensure as a nurse-practitioner.
		Capella's program is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Arizona	Registered Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona.
		Arizona accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arkansas	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas.
		Arkansas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Colorado	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Colorado.
		Colorado accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a completion of a post-graduate degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credentials awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners Certification Board.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain the national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Connecticut	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Connecticut.
		Connecticut accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and a graduate degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		concentre warsing Education (certe) which contains state specific coarsework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice harse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Delaware	Certified Nurse Practitioner,	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Adult/Gerontology	requirements for professional licensure in Delaware.
		Delevery accepts partification from a nationally recognized partifying hady and completion of a graduate level advanced procedure.
		Delaware accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Florida	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Florida.
		Elevida accounts contification from a nationally recognized contifying body and completion of a 45 guarter unit master's degree in advanced pursing Florida accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a 45-quarter unit master's degree in advanced nursing practice that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		practice that is accredited by the commission on conegrate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, meets the quarter unit requirement, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center or the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Georgia	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia.
		Georgia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-master's certificate in an advanced practice registered nurse practitioner specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Guam	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Guam.
		Guam accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate advanced practice registered nursing program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Hawaii	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Hawaii.
		Hawaii accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Idaho	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Idaho.
		Idaho accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Illinois	Advanced Practice Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois.
		Illinois accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-master's certificate in clinical advanced practice registered nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	Advanced Practice Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana.
		Indiana accents cortification from a nationally recognized cortifuing hody and completion of a university cortificate program which contains state enecific Indiana accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a university certificate program which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		evalue work and compared requirements.
		Capella's program contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will peed to hold a valid upon symbored registered pursu license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national eredeficial prior to applying for the davanced practice marse practiciner needse.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Iowa	Advanced Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Practitioner	requirements for professional licensure in Iowa.
		lowa accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing
		Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
		incensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Kansas.
		Kansas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a formal, post-basic nursing education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Conclude warmon is CCNE percedited, contains the state englished and divided available various for licensius, and mosts the adventional
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses credentialing center and the American Academy of Nursing Fractitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Kentucky	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
·	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky.
		Kentucky accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body, a passing score on the state-specific examination, and completion of an advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Conclude warmons is CCNE assertished and make the adventional varying mante for the national graduatic layered by the American Newson Craduatic line.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		center and the American Academy of Nursing Fractitioners.
		Kentucky applicants must ensure they obtain a passing score on the Kentucky Jurisprudence Examination.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
		incerioure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Maine	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maine.
		Maine accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate nurse practitioner program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
	- 4
Massachusetts	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts.
		requirements for professional incensure in Massachusetts.
		Massachusetts accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Michigan	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan.
		Michigan accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's or doctoral degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing
		Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.  Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Minnesota	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota.
		Minnesota accepts a certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree from a Minnesota approved advanced practice registered nursing education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, Minnesota approved, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Mississippi	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi.
		Mississippi accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree or higher that prepares nurses for an advanced practice nursing specialty role from a program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Missouri	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri.
		Missouri accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body andcompletion of a graduate level degree that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Montana	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana.
		Mantana accepts sortification from a nationally recognized sortifying hady and completion of a graduate level program that is accordited by the Montana accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework. commission on conegrate warsing Education (CCNE) which contains state specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains state-specific coursework, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Nebraska	Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
Nebrusku	Nuise i ructitioner	requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska.
		Nebraska accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing
		Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be insurred in connection with mandatory evaminations, whether actionally administered as imposed
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Nevada.
		Nevada accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		some fine transmig Education (contents state specime coarsework and climical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice horse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
New Hampshire	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in New Hampshire.
		No However, the control of the co
		New Hampshire accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Commission on conegrate rearsing Education (Cerez) which contains state specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		areachtial phor to applying for the advanced practice harse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Jersey	Advanced Practice Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey.
		New Jersey accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's program with a focus on an advanced practice nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
New Mexico	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Mexico.
		New Mexico accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a nurse practitioner program at the master's level or higher.
		Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
North Carolina	Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina.
		North Carolina accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate or post-graduate level nurse practitioner education program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
North Dakota	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota.
		North Dakota accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Ohio	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio.
		requirements for professional licensure in Onio.
		Ohio accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree with a major in a nursing specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Oklahoma	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma.
		Oklahoma accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Oregon	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Oregon.
		Oregon accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-master's certificate in an advanced practice registered nursing role that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Rhode Island	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island.
		Rhode Island accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate advanced practice registered nurse program.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Carolina	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Carolina.
		South Carolina accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree in a specialty area of nursing practice.
		Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
South Dakota	Certified Nurse Practitioner	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota.
		South Dakota accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate certificate that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee.
	Tennessee accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree in a nursing specialty.
	Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
	Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
	Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas.
	Texas accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-graduate advanced practice registered nurse program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
	Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
	Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
	Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse  Advanced Practice

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
US Virgin Islands	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the U.S. Virgin Islands.
		The U.S. Virgin Islands accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a post-basic, advanced-practice, formal education program in an area of nursing specialty.
		Capella's program meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Utah	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah.
		Utah accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a master's degree in advanced practice registered nurse nursing education that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains specific content requirements.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Vermont	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Vermont.
		Vermont accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate-level advanced practice registered nurse program that is approved by a state or a national accrediting agency which contains state-specific coursework and clinical experience requirements.
		Capella's program is approved by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and by the Minnesota Board of Nursing, the program contains the state-specific coursework and clinical experience required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
Virginia	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia.
		Virginia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in advanced practice registered nurse specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Washington	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Washington.
		Washington accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in advanced nursing education that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.
West Virginia	Advanced Practice Registered Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia.
		West Virginia accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a graduate degree in an advanced practice registered nurse specialty that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

CA, DC, LA, MD, MP, NY, PA, PR

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wisconsin	Advance Practice Nurse	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
	Prescriber	requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin.
		NACCOUNTY OF THE PROPERTY OF T
		Wisconsin accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body, completion of a master's degree in nursing that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework, and a passing score on the state-specific examination.
		commission on coneglate Nursing Education (CCNE) which contains state-specific coursework, and a passing score on the state-specific examination.
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, contains the state-specific coursework required for licensure, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Wisconsin applicants must obtain a passing score on the Wisconsin Statutes and Rules Online Exam.
		Applicants will provide health a valid to appropriate and provide provide the invitation in which they intend to provide and obtain a potional credential prior to applying for the advanced practice harse practitioner neerise.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.
		Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.
Wyoming	Advanced Practice	Capella University's Post-Master's Certificate in Nursing, Adult-Gerontology Primary Care Nurse Practitioner program will meet the educational
, ,	Registered Nurse	requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming.
		Wyoming accepts certification from a nationally recognized certifying body and completion of a state-board approved post-graduate level advanced practice nurse educational program that is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).
		Capella's program is CCNE accredited, approved by the Minnesota Board of Nursing, and meets the educational requirements for the national credential awarded by the American Nurses Credentialing Center and the American Academy of Nursing Practitioners.
		Applicants will need to hold a valid, unencumbered registered nurse license for the jurisdiction in which they intend to practice and obtain a national
		credential prior to applying for the advanced practice nurse practitioner license.
		Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed
		by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements.  Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of
		licensure.