

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama.  Capella's program will not meet Alabama's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Alabama who intend to seek professional license or certification in Alabama.
Alaska	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska.  Capella's program will not meet Alaska's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Alaska who intend to seek professional license or certification in Alaska.
American Samoa	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in American Samoa.  American Samoa accepts completion of a doctoral degree from an accredited university.  Capella University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.  Capella graduates will need to complete two years of post-doctoral experience acceptable to the Health Services Regulatory Board, prior to applying for licensure.  Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Arizona	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona.  Arizona requires a doctoral degree in psychology with coursework in specific content areas, a supervised internship, and a residency year.  Capella's program contains the specific coursework, internship, and residency requirements.  Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Arkansas	Psychologist	Capella’s PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas.  Capella's program will not meet Arkansas's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Arkansas who intend to seek professional license or certification in Arkansas.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
California	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in California. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. California accepts completion of a doctorate degree in psychology that contains specific coursework, a 1,500 hours practicum, and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and California Psychology Laws and Ethics Examination (CPLEE). Capella learners must add additional course(s) to their program and additional hours to their practicum to meet requirements for licensure. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan. Capella graduate will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and CPLEE. The California Board of Psychology requires specific training for licensure. This requirements must be completed outside of Capella. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Colorado	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Colorado. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Colorado requires a doctoral degree from a graduate training program that fulfilled the equivalency degree requirements used to define a psychology graduate training program and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam. An applicant asserting a program equivalent to an APA-accredited program in psychology must furnish to the Board evidence in support of the equivalency. Evidence may include narrative descriptions of course-work, institutional documents published contemporaneously with the applicant's enrollment, appropriate certifications or affidavits from university officials, dissertation abstracts, and any other evidence the applicant deems useful. The Board may request additional information from the applicant. Capella graduate will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence Exam. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Connecticut	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Connecticut. Capella's program will not meet Connecticut's accreditation or residency requirements. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Connecticut who intend to seek professional license or certification in Connecticut.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Delaware. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Delaware requires completion of a doctoral degree designed to prepare and train psychologists which contains specific coursework and a passing score on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP). Capella learners will need to add additional course(s) to their program to meet the specific content requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the EPPP. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
District of Columbia	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the District of Columbia. Capella's program will not meet the District of Columbia's accreditation requirements. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the District of Columbia who intend to seek professional license or certification in the District of Columbia.
Florida	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Florida. Capella's program will not meet Florida's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Florida who intend to seek professional license or certification in Florida.
Georgia	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia. Capella's program will not meet Georgia's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Georgia who intend to seek professional license or certification in Georgia.
Guam	Clinical Psychology License	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Guam. Guam requires a doctoral degree and a passing score on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP). Capella learners will need to complete two years of internship, of which at least one year must be after receiving the doctorate. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the EPPP. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Hawaii	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Hawaii. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Hawaii requires completion of a doctorate degree in psychology which contains coursework in specific content areas and a passing score on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP). Capella learners will need to add additional course(s) to their program to meet the specific content requirements. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the EPPP. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Idaho	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Idaho. Capella's program will not meet Idaho's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Idaho who intend to seek professional license or certification in Idaho.
Illinois	Clinical Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Illinois requires a doctoral program in clinical psychology program which contains specific coursework, a one year residence, and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam. Capella's program contains the specific coursework and residence requirements. Capella learners will need to obtain a passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence Exam and complete one year of post-doctoral supervised clinical psychology experience. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Indiana	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana. Capella's program will not meet Indiana's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Indiana who intend to seek professional license or certification in Indiana.
Iowa	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Capella's program will not meet Iowa's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Iowa who intend to seek professional license or certification in Iowa.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Capella's program will not meet Kansas's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Kansas who intend to seek professional license or certification in Kansas.
Kentucky	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Kentucky requires completion of a doctorate degree in psychology which contains specific coursework, a supervised pre-doctoral internship, a residency year, and a passing score on the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP). Capella's program contains the specific coursework, internship, and residency requirements. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the EPPP. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Louisiana	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Louisiana. Capella's program will not meet Louisiana's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Louisiana who intend to seek professional license or certification in Louisiana.
Maine	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maine. Capella's program will not meet Maine's accreditation or residency requirements. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Maine who intend to seek professional license or certification in Maine.
Maryland	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maryland. Capella's program will not meet Maryland's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Maryland who intend to seek professional license or certification in Maryland.
Massachusetts	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Capella's program will not meet Massachusetts's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Massachusetts who intend to seek professional license or certification in Massachusetts.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Michigan	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan.  Capella's program will not meet Michigan's accreditation requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Michigan who intend to seek professional license or certification in Michigan.
Minnesota	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled.  Minnesota requires a doctoral degree with a major in psychology which contains specific coursework, 384 clock hours in residence, and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and Professional Responsibility Exam (PRE).  Capella learners will need to add additional course(s) to their program to meet the specific coursework and residency requirement. Please contact Enrollment Services or Academic Advising to build a suitable academic plan.  Capella graduates will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and PRE.  Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Mississippi	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi.  Capella's program will not meet Mississippi's accreditation requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Mississippi who intend to seek professional license or certification in Mississippi.
Missouri	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri.  Capella's program will not meet Missouri's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Missouri who intend to seek professional license or certification in Missouri.
Montana	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana.  Capella's program will not meet Montana's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Montana who intend to seek professional license or certification in Montana.
Nebraska	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska.  Capella's program will not meet Nebraska's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Nebraska who intend to seek professional license or certification in Nebraska.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Capella's program will not meet Nevada's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Nevada who intend to seek professional license or certification in Nevada.
New Hampshire	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Hampshire. Capella's program will not meet New Hampshire's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of New Hampshire who intend to seek professional license or certification in New Hampshire.
New Jersey	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey. Capella's program will not meet New Jersey's accreditation or residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of New Jersey who intend to seek professional license or certification in New Jersey.
New Mexico	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Mexico. Capella's program will not meet New Mexico's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of New Mexico who intend to seek professional license or certification in New Mexico.
New York	Psychologist	Capella’s PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure. Capella has not determined whether this program will meet the state’s requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New York accepts completion of a doctoral degree in psychology from a regionally accredited institution, whose program is substantially equivalent to a New York State registered program. Substantially equivalent programs must include at least 3 years of full-time study, at least 45 quarter credit hours of coursework in specific content areas, and one year of practicum or internship. New York regulates the provision of professional services, which can include site-based learning experiences. Capella learners that choose to complete internship and practicum requirements in New York, must do so at exempt settings, such as university counseling centers or VA hospitals. Capella learners should confirm that their internship or practicum site has the appropriate exemption status for Capella learners to conduct professional services at the site. Capella graduates will need to submit evidence that Capella’s PsyD in Clinical Psychology program is substantially equivalent in design, scope, content and resources to a New York State-registered program. Capella's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program is not APA accredited, and is not a New York State registered program. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of New York who intend to seek professional license or certification in New York.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
North Carolina	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina. Capella's program will not meet North Carolina's residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of North Carolina who intend to seek professional license or certification in North Carolina.
North Dakota	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota. Capella's program will not meet North Dakota's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of North Dakota who intend to seek professional license or certification in North Dakota.
Northern Mariana Islands	Psychology License	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the Northern Mariana Islands. Capella's program will not meet the Northern Mariana Islands' residency requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the Northern Mariana Islands who intend to seek professional license or certification in the Northern Mariana Islands.
Ohio	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Ohio accepts completion of a 90 quarter credit doctoral degree in psychology and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam. Ohio requires graduates of institutions not accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA) to complete a 1500 - 2000 hour supervised doctoral internship and an 1800 hour post-doctoral supervised internship. Capella's program is not APA accredited. Capella’s program includes a 2000 hour supervised internship as a graduation requirement of the degree program. Capella graduates will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence exam and complete an 1800 hour post-doctoral supervised internship. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical state requirements for the profession.
Oklahoma	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Capella's program will not meet Oklahoma's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Oklahoma who intend to seek professional license or certification in Oklahoma.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Oregon	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon.  Capella's program will not meet Oregon's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Oregon who intend to seek professional license or certification in Oregon.
Pennsylvania	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Pennsylvania.  Capella's program will not meet Pennsylvania's accreditation requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Pennsylvania who intend to seek professional license or certification in Pennsylvania.
Puerto Rico	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Puerto Rico.  The Board will not approve applications from candidates whose psychology education was obtained from a program offered entirely online.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Puerto Rico who intend to seek professional license or certification in Puerto Rico.
Rhode Island	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island.  Capella's program will not meet Rhode Island's accreditation requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Rhode Island who intend to seek professional license or certification in Rhode Island.
South Carolina	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Carolina.  Capella's program will not meet South Carolina's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of South Carolina who intend to seek professional license or certification in South Carolina.
South Dakota	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota.  Capella's program will not meet South Dakota's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of South Dakota who intend to seek professional license or certification in South Dakota.
Tennessee	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee.  Capella's program will not meet Tennessee's accreditation requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Tennessee who intend to seek professional license or certification in Tennessee.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Texas	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Texas requires completion of a doctorate degree psychology and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam. Capella graduates will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence Exam. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
US Virgin Islands	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in the U.S. Virgin Islands. Capella's program will not meet the U.S. Virgin Islands' accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of U.S. Virgin Islands who intend to seek professional license or certification in U.S. Virgin Islands.
Utah	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Capella's program will not meet Utah's accreditation requirement. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Utah who intend to seek professional license or certification in Utah.
Vermont	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Vermont. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont accepts a doctoral degree in psychology approved by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB) or accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA) that meets specific coursework requirements. Graduates from non-accredited programs can supply detailed information about the program to the Vermont Office of Professional Regulation, Psychological Examiner (the Board) for review. Capella's program is not ASPPB approved or APA accredited. Capella graduates will need to submit detailed information about Capella's program to the Board for review. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Virginia	Clinical Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Capella's program will not meet Virginia's accreditation requirement. As of June 23rd, 2028, Virginia will require applicants for the Clinical Psychologist license to complete an American Psychological Association (APA) accredited program. Capella's program is not APA accredited. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Virginia who intend to seek professional license or certification in Virginia.

PsyD in Clinical Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AL, AK, AR, CT, DC, FL, GA, ID, IN, IA, KS, LA, ME, MD, MA, MI, MS, MO, MT, NE, NV, NH, NJ, NM, NY, NC, ND, MP, OK, OR, PA, PR, RI, SC, SD, TN, VI, UT, VA, WA, WY.

The disclosure below is Capella’s determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant’s completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Washington	Licensed Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Washington.  Capella's program will not meet Washington's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Washington who intend to seek professional license or certification in Washington.
West Virginia	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia.  West Virginia accepts completion of a doctoral degree in psychology that contains specific coursework and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam.  Capella graduates will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence Exam.  Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Wisconsin	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin. Capella’s program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled.  Wisconsin accepts completion of academic training that the Department of Safety and Professional Services, Psychology Examining Board (the Board) determines to be substantially equivalent to a doctoral degree in psychology on the basis of standards established by the Board and a passing score on both the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology (EPPP) and State Jurisprudence Exam.  Capella graduates will need to submit detailed information about Capella's program to the Board to determine equivalency.  Capella graduates will need to obtain passing scores on the EPPP and State Jurisprudence Exam.  Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), state licenses, and credentials will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate they meet ethical state requirements for the profession.
Wyoming	Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in Clinical Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming.  Capella's program will not meet Wyoming's residency requirement.  Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in Clinical Psychology program from residents of Wyoming who intend to seek professional license or certification in Wyoming.