

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alabama accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and a master's degree or higher from a regionally accredited senior institution. Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam and the Alabama Educator Certification Assessment Program (AECAP), to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Alaska	Special Services Certificate (Type C) School Psychology	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alaska accepts a master's or higher degree in school psychology accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) with specific internship requirements. Alaska requires mandatory trainings in specific content areas provided by an approved Alaska public school district, or the Alaska Department of Education & Early Development (DEED) and Alaska-specific coursework provided by an Alaska college or university. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Applicants must complete the Alaska public school district or DEED approved mandatory trainings before applying for licensure. Applicants can go to the DEED website for a list of DEED approved eLearning trainings. Applicants must enroll in an Alaska college or university to complete the Alaska-specific coursework requirements. This coursework can be completed after graduating Capella's program. This coursework must be completed within two years of the date of initial application. Applicants can go to the DEED website for a list of approved Alaska colleges or universities. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
American Samoa	N/A	American Samoa does not currently offer a professional license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arizona	School Psychologist, PreK-12 Certificate	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona. Arizona requires completion of a graduate program in school psychology consisting of 90-quarter credits, and a 1200 clock hour supervised internship of which a minimum of 600 clock hours must be completed in a school setting. Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Arkansas	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas. Arkansas accepts completions of a master's or higher degree in school psychology that is approved by the American Psychological Association (APA) or the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's program is not APA or NASP approved. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Arkansas who intend to seek professional license or certification in Arkansas.
California	Pupil Personnel Services - Clear Credential - Specialization in School Psychology	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in California. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. California requires completion of a 90-quarter credit post baccalaureate professional preparation program comparable to a program accredited by the Committee on Accreditation in the requested pupil personnel services area of specialization, including successful completion of a supervised field practice appropriate to the specialization area, in a school setting in direct contact with pupils. Capella learners will need to ensure their site-based learning experience is in a school setting in direct contact with pupils. Capella applicants will need to submit an original letter from the program on University letterhead and signed by the program chair stating the applicant has completed all of the program requirements and is eligible to be issued the credential in that state. The letter should also state that the educator completed a practicum of supervised field experience with school aged children. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Colorado	School Psychologist (Birth - 21)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Colorado. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Colorado accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral program for the preparation of school psychologists, serving children/students ages birth-21, from an accepted institution of higher education; and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Connecticut	School Psychologist (070)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Connecticut. Connecticut applicants are required to complete a 90-quarter credit graduate program in school psychology in specific content areas and a 10 school month supervised internship under the supervision of a certified school psychologist, the local school system, and the preparing institution. Capella learners will need to ensure they complete a 10 school month supervised internship under the supervision of a certified school psychologist, the local school system, and the preparing institution. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	School Psychologist Standard Certificate	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Delaware. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Delaware accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
District of Columbia	Standard School Service Provider (SSP) - School Psychologist Credential	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure in the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia requires completion of a master's degree in school psychology with 63-quarter credits of specific coursework. A letter grade of "C" or higher is required. Capella's program prepares graduates with the quarter credits and coursework required for professional licensure. Capella learners will need to ensure they complete 500 clock hours of supervised internship in a school setting under the supervision of a certified school psychologist and complete the program with a "C" or higher. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Florida	Certification in School Psychology (Grades PK-12)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet educational requirements for professional licensure in Florida. Florida requires completion of a doctorate degree with a specialization in school psychology which includes a 1200 hour supervised internship with at least six-hundred 600 hours of supervised internship completed in an elementary or secondary school setting and a passing score on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella learners will need to ensure a they complete 600 clock hours of supervised internship in an elementary or secondary school setting. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Georgia	School Psychologist Certificate (grades P-12)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia. Georgia accepts completion of a state-approved specialist's or higher degree in school psychology. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Guam	N/A	Guam does not currently offer a professional license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Hawaii	N/A	Hawaii does not have any formal credentialing process at the state level. Individual job postings identify expected requirements, though they tend to abide by the following requirements: A degree from a regionally accredited college or university in school psychology, educational psychology, counseling psychology, or a closely related field provided that certain courses were included. Also requires an internship in a school setting. Applicants must also demonstrate 4 years of responsible professional experience as a school psychologist which involved working with children. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the job posting requirements above if certain conditions are fulfilled. Learners or graduates will also need to complete 4 years of responsible professional experience as a school psychologist which involved working with children. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Idaho	Pupil Personnel Services Cert - School Psychologist Endorsement	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Idaho. Idaho accepts completion of a state-approved 90-quarter credit master's degree in school psychology and completion of a 1200 clock hour internship. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Illinois	Professional Educator License - School Psychologist Endorsement	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Illinois accepts completion of a state-approved master's degree or higher in school psychology with course work in specific content areas. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Illinois learners must add the additional Illinois State Board of Education approved coursework listed below to their program to meet specific content areas. Illinois content area: Methods of Instruction of the Exceptional Child Capella course: PSY8150 Exceptional Children in the Classroom Illinois content area: Methods of Reading Capella course (choose one): ED5551 Developing Fluent Readers ED5552 Teaching Comprehension Strategies ED5554 Sociocultural Context of Reading Instruction Illinois content area: Instructional Strategies for English Language Learners Capella course: ED5728 Methods, Curriculum, and Materials for English Language Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Indiana	School Services: School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Indiana accepts completion of a master's degree that is approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and has an evaluation process for non-NASP approved programs to determine if NASP standards have been met. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP-approved. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for the Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by NASP. Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is common. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Iowa	School Psychologist (B-21)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa accepts completion of a doctoral degree program of at least 90-quarter credits with specific coursework, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Kansas	School Psychologist (PK-12)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kansas requires out-of-state applicants to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella University graduates are considered out-of-state applicants. Capella graduates will first need to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation. To obtain the Arizona School Psychologist license, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once an out-of-state credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Kentucky	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Kentucky requires completion of a Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) approved program. Capella's program is not KDE approved. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Kentucky who intend to seek professional license or certification in Kentucky.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Louisiana	Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A credential as awarded by the Louisiana Department of Education or Licensed Specialists in School Psychology credential as awarded by the Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Psychologists	Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure as a Initial Ancillary Certificate, School Psychology - Level A credential in Louisiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Louisiana accepts completion of a doctoral program in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession. Licensed Specialists in School Psychology Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure as a Licensed Specialists in School Psychology in Louisiana. The Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Psychologists requires that online programs be approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's program is not NASP approved.
Maine	School Psychologist Certificate (093)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maine. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Maine accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits of coursework in specific content areas and a 1500 hour supervised internship with 50% (750 clock hours) in a school setting. Capella learners must ensure they obtain acceptable documentation that 50% (750 clock hours) of their supervised internship was in providing psychological services to children in school system(s) and demonstrated competency in a school setting. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Maryland	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Maryland. Maryland accepts completion of a state-approved master's or higher degree in school psychology, culminating a 1,200-hour internship; and a qualifying score of 147 on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Massachusetts	Professional Support Personnel License, School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Massachusetts requires completion of a program approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's program is not NASP approved. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Massachusetts who intend to seek professional license or certification in Massachusetts.
Michigan	School Psychologist Certificate	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Michigan accepts completion of a state-approved specialist-level or the equivalent degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits and an out-of-state license. Capella graduates will first need to obtain an Arizona School Psychologist license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners will need to ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona license is granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Minnesota	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Minnesota accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Mississippi	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi. Mississippi requires completion of a program approved by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's program is not NASP approved. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Mississippi who intend to seek professional license or certification in Mississippi.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Missouri	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Missouri accepts completion of a state-approved specialist or higher degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits in specific content areas and a 1200 clock hour supervised internship. Missouri recommends that out-of-state applicants first obtain a license in the state where the program is approved. Capella's program is state-approved by Arizona for School Psychologist certification preparation. Missouri considers Capella University graduates out-of-state applicants. Missouri applicants will first need to obtain the Arizona School Psychologist license before applying for the Missouri state license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Montana	Specialist, School Psychologist endorsement (K-12)	Montana Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Montana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Montana accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP) and completes the free on-line course "An Introduction to Indian Education for All in Montana." Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Capella learners will also need to complete the free on-line course "An Introduction to Indian Education for All in Montana." Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Nebraska	School Psychologist endorsement	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska. Nebraska accepts completion of graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits with 1200 clock hours of supervised internship. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	School Psychologist (K-12)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nevada accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits of coursework in specific content areas, 1,000 hours of supervised internship, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella learners must ensure 500 clock hours of internship are served in an accredited school system or a school system which is approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Hampshire	School Psychologist endorsement	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in New Hampshire. New Hampshire accepts completion of a state-approved doctorate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Jersey	Educational Services Personnel Standard Certificate - School Psychologist Endorsement	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Jersey accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours are completed in a school setting with school age children. Capella graduates must obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Mexico	School Psychologist (PreK-12) Level 1	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in New Mexico. New Mexico accepts completion of a doctoral degree in school psychology that includes specific coursework, a 600 clock hour internship with specific parameters, and a score of at least 156 on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours of their internship are completed in a school-related setting and are supervised by a New Mexico School Psychologist (PreK-12) Level 3 license holder. Capella learners will need to obtain a 156 or better on the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New York	Provisional Certificate - School Psychologist to Permanent Certificate - School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in New York. In New York school psychologists first obtain a Provisional Certificate and after conditions are fulfilled become eligible for a Permanent Certificate. For a Provisional Certificate, New York requires applicants to hold a bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education, and shall have completed an additional 90-quarter hours of graduate study, including a college-supervised internship in the field of school psychology. For a Permanent Certificate, 2 years of school experience in the field of pupil personnel services are required. Within the total program of preparation, the candidate shall have been awarded a master's degree. 2 years of school experience in the field of pupil personnel services must be fulfilled in order to obtain the Permanent Certificate. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
North Carolina	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Carolina accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates must obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this program with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
North Dakota	50080 Regular School Psychologist K-12 License (Five-Years)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota. North Dakota requires completion of a program approved by the National Association of School Psychologist (NASP). Capella's program is not NASP approved. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of North Dakota who intend to seek professional license or certification in North Dakota.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	The Northern Mariana Islands do not currently offer a professional license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Ohio	Pupil Services License - School Psychologist (5 Year)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio. Ohio accepts completion of a state-approved master's degree in school psychology and 4 years of school psychologist experience of which 2 years of experience must be practicing school psychology within the scope of employment by a board of education or by a private school. The state has not yet defined a process for new graduates to obtain the required 4 years of experience. Capella learners may need to secure a Temporary Pupil Services, School Psychologist license awarded by the Ohio Department of Education and Workforce (DEW) to complete their SBL experience in Ohio. Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Ohio who intend to seek professional license or certification in Ohio.
Oklahoma	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Oklahoma accepts completion of a state-approved degree in school psychology and a passing score on the Oklahoma School Psychologist (033) exam or the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Capella graduates will need to pass either the Oklahoma School Psychologist (033) exam or the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Oregon	Reciprocal School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oregon requires out-of-state learners to obtain an out-of-state license. Capella graduates will need to obtain an Arizona School Psychologist license. Per Arizona's requirements, Capella learners must ensure a minimum of 600 clock hours of supervised internship are completed in a school setting. Once the Arizona credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Pennsylvania	CSPG 81 - School Psychologist (PK-12)	Capella University's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania accepts completion of an out-of-state program that is comparable to approved programs at Commonwealth institutions. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Puerto Rico	General Psychologist with a specialization in School Psychology	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Puerto Rico. Puerto Rico accepts a doctoral degree from a psychology program from a institution of higher education, a supervised practice or internship of 1500 hours, and a passing score of 70% on the Examen de la Junta Examinadora para la Práctica Profesional de la Psicología (EJE-PPP). Capella learners must complete the EJE-PPP after they have submitted their initial application to the board. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Rhode Island	Full Certification - Support Professional - School Psychologist PK-12 (13002)	Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island. Rhode Island requires completion of a Rhode Island Department of Education (RIDE) approved program. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not RIDE approved. Capella is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Rhode Island who intend to seek professional license or certification in Rhode Island.
South Carolina	School Psychologist Certification III	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in South Carolina. South Carolina accepts completion of a state-approved doctoral degree in school psychology. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Dakota	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Dakota accepts a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology in specific content areas, and an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Tennessee	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee. Tennessee accepts completion of a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Texas	Licensed Specialist in School Psychology (LSSP)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Texas accepts completion of a graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits that includes specific coursework and 1200 clock hours of supervised internship. Capella learners must ensure 600 clock hours of supervised internship is completed in a public school, supervised by a Licensed Psychologist. Internship hours must be obtained in not more than two placements. Capella graduates will need to complete the Jurisprudence: School Psychology exam administered by Educational Testing Services (ETS). Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
US Virgin Islands	N/A	The US Virgin Islands do not currently offer a professional license in school psychology. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around the standards for a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) credential awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license.
Utah	School Psychologist Level 1	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Utah accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Vermont	School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Vermont. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Virginia	School Psychology	Capella University's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program alone will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Capella's PsyD Psychology, School Psychology program will meet the state's requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia accepts completion of a state-approved graduate degree in school psychology with at least 90-quarter credits from a regionally accredited institution and an internship with specific parameters. Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Capella learners will need to obtain at least one half of their internship hours in an accredited school setting at multiple age levels. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Washington	Residency Educational Staff Associate First Issue Certificate - School Psychologist	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Washington. Washington accepts completion of a state-approved master's degree or higher in school psychology and a passing score on the Praxis II specialty area test (code 5403). Capella's program is approved by the Arizona Department of Education. Capella learners will need to obtain a passing score of 155 on the Praxis II specialty area test (code 5403). Capella graduates will need to complete a 3 hour training program on youth suicide screening and referral outside of Capella as a condition of certification. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
West Virginia	Professional Student Support Certificate (Out-of-State), School Psychologist credential as awarded by the West Virginia Department of Education	Professional Student Support Certificate (Out-of-State), School Psychologist Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia. The West Virginia Department of Education requires programs to be approved by the Educator Preparation Programs Review Board (EPPRB) and the West Virginia Board of Education (WVBE). Capella's program is not EPPRB or WVBE approved.
	or	Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of West Virginia who intend to seek professional license or certification in West Virginia.
	School Psychologist Level 1 credential as awarded by the West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists	School Psychologist Level 1 Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in West Virginia. West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists require applicants for the School Psychologist Level 1 license to first obtain a Professional Student Support Certificate (Out-of-State), School Psychologist license awarded by the West Virginia Department of Education (WV DOE). The WV DOE requires programs to be approved by the Educator Preparation Programs Review Board (EPPRB) and the West Virginia Board of Education (WVBE). Capella's program is not EPPRB or WVBE approved.
		Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of West Virginia who intend to seek professional license or certification in West Virginia.
Wisconsin	Pupil Services License - School Psychologist (PK - 12)	Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin.
		Wisconsin requires completion of a Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction (DPI) approved program. Capella's program is not DPI approved.
		Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of Wisconsin who intend to seek professional license or certification in Wisconsin.

PsyD in School Psychology

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the PsyD in School Psychology program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current learners who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

AR, KY, MA, MS, ND, OH, RI, WV, WI.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2024

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wyoming	Specialist in School Psychology License awarded by the Wyoming Board of Psychology	Specialist in School Psychology License Capella University's PsyD in School Psychology program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled.
	or Professional Services Endorsement for School Psychologist credential awarded by the Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board (PTSB)	Wyoming accepts an applicant who holds a valid certification as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) awarded by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP). Capella graduates will need to obtain the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology prepares graduates of this programs with the required graduate 90-quarter credit hours in school psychology and required 1,200 internship hours needed to meet NCSP credentialing standards. Capella learners must pass the Praxis (5402) school psychologist exam, to be eligible to apply for the NCSP credential. Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is designed around NCSP standards; Capella's PsyD in School Psychology program is not NASP approved. For graduates of non-NASP approved programs, NCSP applications are accepted twice a year: May 1 and November 1. The application involves preparing a case study and demonstrating competency in 10 domains of practice. The review process takes approximately 3 to 4 months. Resubmission with corrections is not uncommon. Once the NCSP credential has been granted, graduates may apply for the state license. Please be aware that applicants will incur additional fees for required exams (national or jurisdiction-specific) and state license applications. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession. Professional Services Endorsement for School Psychologist Capella university's PsyD in Psychology, School Psychology program will not meet the state requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming. Wyoming requires school psychologist applicants to hold a Wyoming Educator License. Capella's program will not lead to any level educator license.