

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Alabama	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alabama. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alabama requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Alaska	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Alaska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Alaska requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
American Samoa	N/A	Territory License American Samoa does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Arizona	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arizona. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Arizona requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Applicants will then need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Arkansas	N/A	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Arkansas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Arkansas does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Arkansas requires certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) to work in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
California	N/A	California does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) and a passing score on the California law and ethics examination may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the California law and ethics examination. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Colorado	N/A	State License Colorado does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Connecticut	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Connecticut. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Connecticut requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Delaware	N/A	Delaware does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
District of Columbia	N/A	State License The District of Columbia does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Florida	N/A	State License Florida does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Georgia	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Georgia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Georgia accepts completion of a bachelor's or master's degree based on applied behavior analysis coursework in an approved sequence. Capella's program is a non-degree certificate and will not meet the degree type requirements. The Georgia Behavior Analyst Licensing Board has advised that, at this time, applicants may submit an official transcript reflecting a bachelor's or master's degree, regardless of whether the degree is in behavioral analysis, together with official documentation of their national certification, for the Board's review. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB). Capella students and/or graduates will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure. Capella University is not accepting new applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of Georgia who intend to seek professional license or certification in Georgia.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Guam	N/A	Territory License Guam does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Hawaii	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Hawaii. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Hawaii requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Idaho	N/A	State License Idaho does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Illinois	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Illinois. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Illinois requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students and/or graduates will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Applicants are advised that additional fees may be incurred in connection with mandatory examinations—whether nationally administered or imposed by local licensing authorities—as well as for license applications, background checks, and compliance with other jurisdictional regulatory requirements. Furthermore, applicants may be required to satisfy ethical standards and demonstrate adherence to professional conduct rules as a condition of licensure.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Indiana	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Indiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Indiana requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Iowa	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Iowa. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Iowa requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Kansas	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kansas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kansas requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Kentucky	Temporary Licensed Behavior Analyst (TLBA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Kentucky. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Kentucky requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) as well as state-specific trainings, to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Kentucky applicants will need to complete 5 hours of training in "adult abuse and neglect prevention," "child abuse, neglect, and dependency prevention," or a combination. These hours must be fulfilled outside of Capella. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Louisiana	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Louisiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Louisiana requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Maine	N/A	State License Maine does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Certification as a BCBA may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Maryland	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Louisiana. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Maryland requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Massachusetts	Applied Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Massachusetts. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Massachusetts requires a state license and completion of a 30 graduate credit master's degree in behavior analysis that contains state-specific coursework as well as certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the state-specific coursework and coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential and complete a free online board-approved training in domestic and sexual violence before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Michigan	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Michigan. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Michigan requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) as well as state-specific training, to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the state-specific training requirement and meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Minnesota	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Minnesota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Minnesota requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella learners will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Mississippi	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Mississippi. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Mississippi requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Missouri	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Missouri. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Missouri requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) as well as state-specific training, to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Missouri graduates will need to complete two hours of suicide assessment, referral, treatment, and management training. This requirement must be completed outside of Capella. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Montana	N/A	State License Montana does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Nebraska	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nebraska. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nebraska requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Nevada	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Nevada. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Nevada requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) as well as a passing score on the Nevada Jurisprudence Exam, to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain a passing score on the Nevada Jurisprudence Exam. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Hampshire	N/A	State License New Hampshire does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Certification as a BCBA may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New Jersey	Licensed Applied Behavior Analyst (LBA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New Jersey. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. New Jersey requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
New Mexico	N/A	State License New Mexico does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Certification as a BCBA may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
New York	Certified Behavior Analyst Assistants (CBAA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in New York. New York requires a state license to practice in the state. The state accepts a bachelor's or higher degree that is determined by the New York State Education Department (NYSED) to be equivalent to a program registered with NYSED, national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), and state-specific training from an approved provider. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella graduates will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience before applying for the BCBA national credential. New York regulates how experience hours can be fulfilled, including how the required hours can be earned in New York. Contact the state licensing board to review the state requirements for earning experience hours prior to engaging in site-based learning within the state of New York. Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program from residents of New York who intend to seek professional licensure or certification in New York.
North Carolina	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Carolina. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Carolina requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
North Dakota	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in North Dakota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. North Dakota requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Northern Mariana Islands	N/A	Territory License The Northern Mariana Islands do not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Ohio	Certified Ohio Behavior Analyst (COBA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Ohio. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Ohio requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Ohio applicants will need to; <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Submit a signed statement that the applicant has obtained and studied Chapter 4783 of the Revised Code, Agency 4783 of the Administrative Code, and copies of any state and/or federal laws governing the practice and legal responsibilities of COBA's. 2. Attend at a jurisprudence workshop of no longer than four hours prepared and presented by the Ohio Board of Psychology. 3. Earning a passing score on a post-workshop written examination covering the material presented in the workshop. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession
Oklahoma	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oklahoma. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oklahoma requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Oregon	Behavior Analysts	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Oregon. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Oregon requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Pennsylvania	N/A	State License Pennsylvania does not currently offer a state license for graduates of a certificate program. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Puerto Rico	N/A	Territory License Puerto Rico does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Rhode Island	Applied Behavioral Analyst (LBA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Rhode Island. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Rhode Island requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
South Carolina	N/A	State License South Carolina does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
South Dakota	Behavior Analyst License	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in South Dakota. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. South Dakota requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Tennessee	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Tennessee. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Tennessee requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Texas	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Texas. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Texas requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
US Virgin Islands	N/A	Territory License The US Virgin Islands do not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) The BCBA national credential is not required to practice in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Utah	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Utah. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Utah requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Vermont	Applied Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Vermont. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Vermont requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Virginia	Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Virginia. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Virginia requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Washington	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Washington. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Washington requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
West Virginia	N/A	State License West Virginia does not currently offer a behavior analyst license. Licensure rules and regulations often change. Monitor for changes in educational requirements or creation of a license. Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) national credential awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB) Certification as a BCBA may be required for some employment opportunities in the jurisdiction. Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella's program will meet the requirements for the national credential if certain conditions are met. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.

Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis

Disclaimer: Capella University is not accepting applications into the Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavioral Analysis program from residents of the states and/or territories listed below who intend to seek professional license or certification in the restricted state. Current students who relocate to the following states or territories may not be able to complete site-based learning or other program requirements, fulfill residency requirements, or obtain professional licensure or certification in the state or territory.

GA, NY.

The disclosure below is Capella's determination of whether this program will fulfill the educational requirements for state licensure in those states where the program is offered. State licensing boards review each applicant's completed education, exam scores, supervised experience, criminal history, and application materials at the time of license application to determine eligibility. Capella University cannot guarantee eligibility for licensure, endorsement, other professional credential, or salary advancement.

Updated 2026

State/Territory Name	Credential Title	Professional Licensure Disclosure
Wisconsin	Licensed Behavior Analyst	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wisconsin. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Wisconsin requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.
Wyoming	Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)	Capella University's Graduate Certificate in Psychology, Applied Behavior Analysis program alone will not meet the educational requirements for professional licensure in Wyoming. Capella's program will meet the educational requirements for professional licensure if certain conditions are fulfilled. Wyoming requires a state license and national certification as a Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) awarded by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board (BACB), to practice in the state. Capella's program meets the coursework requirements for the BCBA national credential. Capella students will need to complete 2000 (non-concentrated) hours of supervised site-based learning experience outside of Capella before applying for the BCBA national credential. Hours can be accrued during or after the program. Capella graduates will need to obtain the BCBA national credential before applying for the state license. Please be aware that applicants to all exams (national and state-specific), professional licenses, and the national credential will incur additional associated fees. Applicants may also need to demonstrate ethical requirements for the profession.